

*Senator Jim Brulte (Ret.)
Inland Empire, Sacramento*

- Strategic Regulatory Consulting
- Business and Government Issues Management
- Land Use Entitlement and Development Strategies
- Collaborative Community Outreach
- Governmental Affairs and Stakeholder Strategies

E-mail:

jimbrulte@aol.com

Career Highlights:

Senate Republican Leader

Assembly Republican Leader

Served on legislative committees including Business and Professions, Governmental Organization, Transportation, and Rules

Jim Brulte is listed in the Los Angeles Times Magazine as one of the most powerful people in Southern California

Member, Board of Visitors, United States Naval Academy (Appointed by President G.W.Bush)

Consultant to the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development (Reagan Administration)

Assistant to the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Reserve Affairs (Reagan Administration)

Served on legislative committees including, Energy, Utilities and Communications, Environmental Safety and Toxics, Budget, Governmental Organization, Transportation, Agriculture, Banking and Finance, Insurance and Rules

Jim Brulte was selected as "Legislator of the Year" by the California Journal and is listed in the Los Angeles

As the former Minority Leader in both the California State Senate and Assembly, Jim Brulte uses his experience and knowledge of the governmental decision-making process to benefit his clients.

Recently named one of the 100 most powerful people in Southern California by The Los Angeles Times and one of the top 20 "most powerful political players in California" by Capitol Weekly, Jim Brulte opened the California Strategies Inland Empire office in 2005.

His strategies to effect change in the regulatory, legislative and executive branch decision-making process have been invaluable to his clients seeking:

- State government affairs program strategies
- Environmental and regulatory compliance assistance
- Transportation funding
- Healthcare policy initiatives
- Surplus state property sales
- Education funding formula changes
- Renewable energy policy initiatives
- Affordable housing programs and funding
- Local government outreach programs

Brulte has served in three presidential administrations and has been appointed by two California governors to state boards. Capitol Weekly wrote that "over the last 15 years, there has been no more enduring force in California Republican politics than Jim Brulte." His success at developing winning strategies was summed up recently:

Our local LAFCO had initiated a process that likely would ultimately result in the elimination of our district. Jim Brulte and his California Strategies team crafted a strategy for us that resulted in LAFCO commissioners rejecting their own staff's recommendation, allowing us to continue our important work.

— Melody McDonald, President, San Bernardino Valley Water Conservation District